THEME

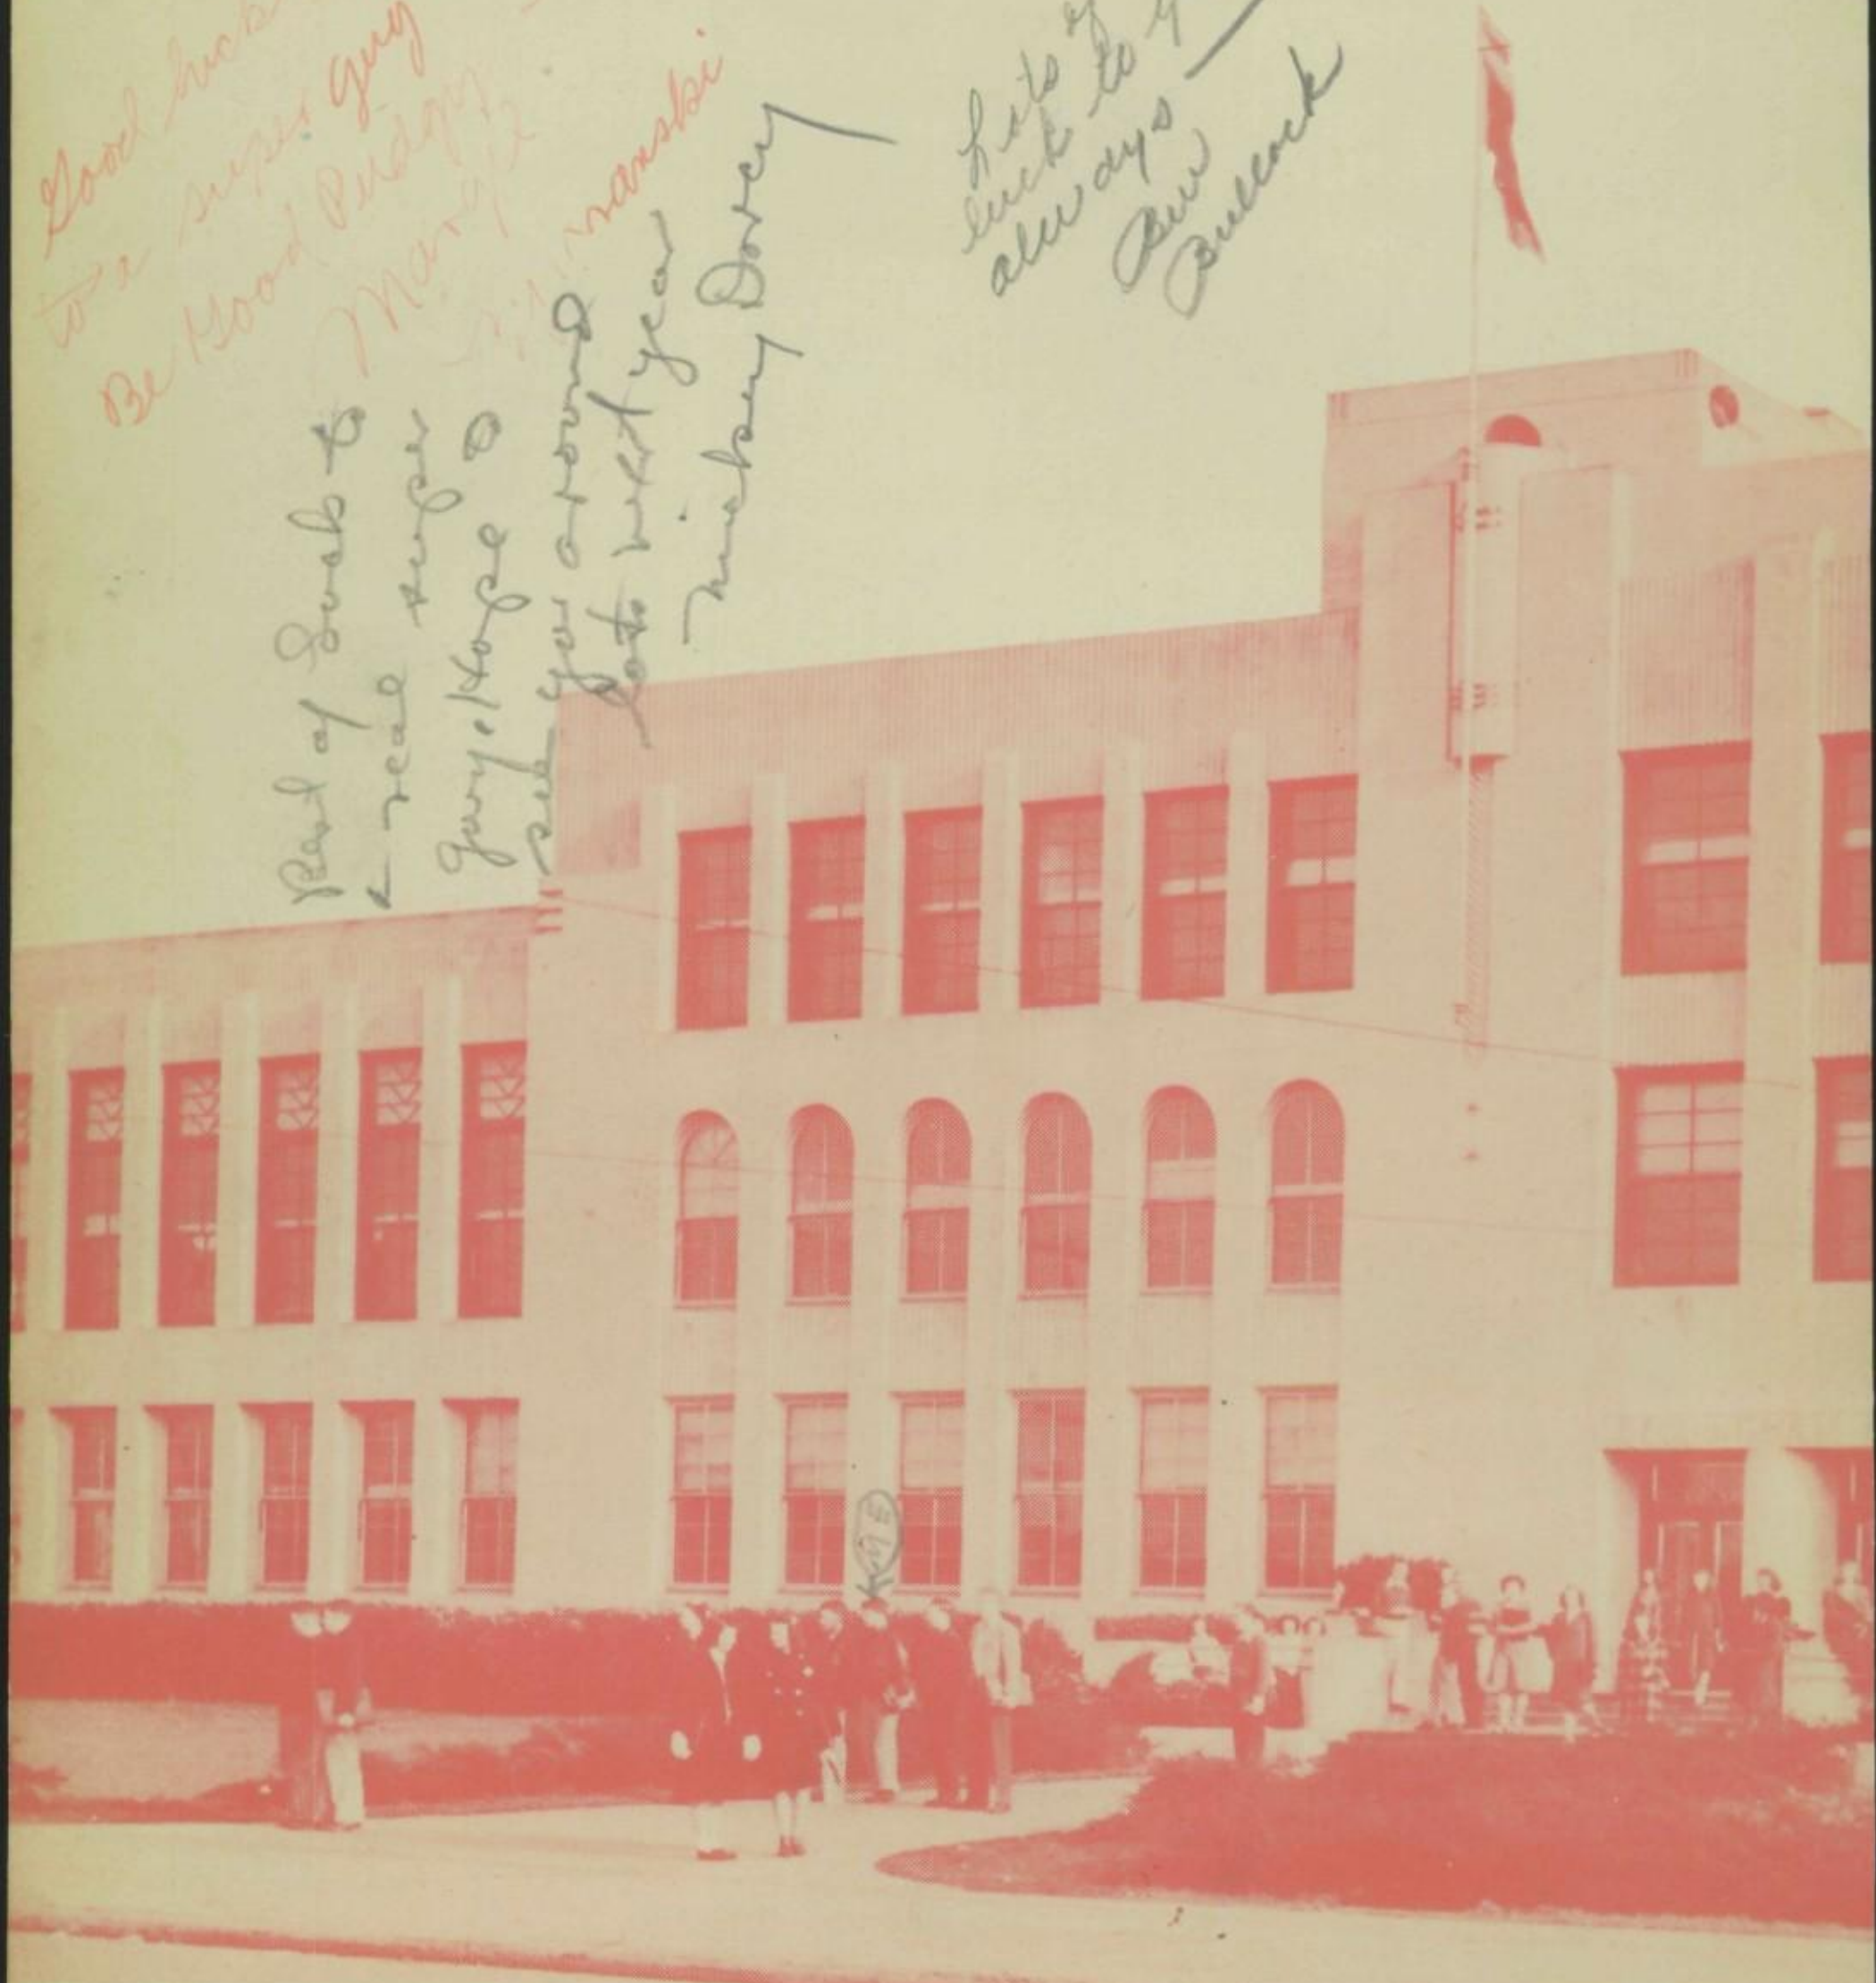

Many decades ago, Red Raiders inhabited this vast, wooded wonderland of ours. In recent years, athletes of Bellingham High have taken the Red Raider name and have gloriously upheld the school's traditions. Through these pages, the Raiders wish to journey with you down the stream of school life and help recall to you the happy memories we have all had.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Working with Mr. C. Paine Shangle, superintendent, and Mr. C. M. Iddins, secretary, these five public-spirited men on the school board spend many unheralded hours guarding the welfare of our school. Although the students seldom come into personal contact with these men, we know they are ever present because of their faithful vigilance.

COZIER, STAGGS, SHIKLES, IRELAND, SHANGLE, FROST, IDDINS

OFFICE STAFF

Three indispensable people in our Raider tribe—Miss Edris Warner, assistant to the principal, Miss Marlyn Carpenter, office secretary, and Mrs. Marie Christopherson, attendance clerk. A trio like this managing our powwow place explains its efficiency.

CHRISTOPHERSON, CARPENTER, WARNER

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

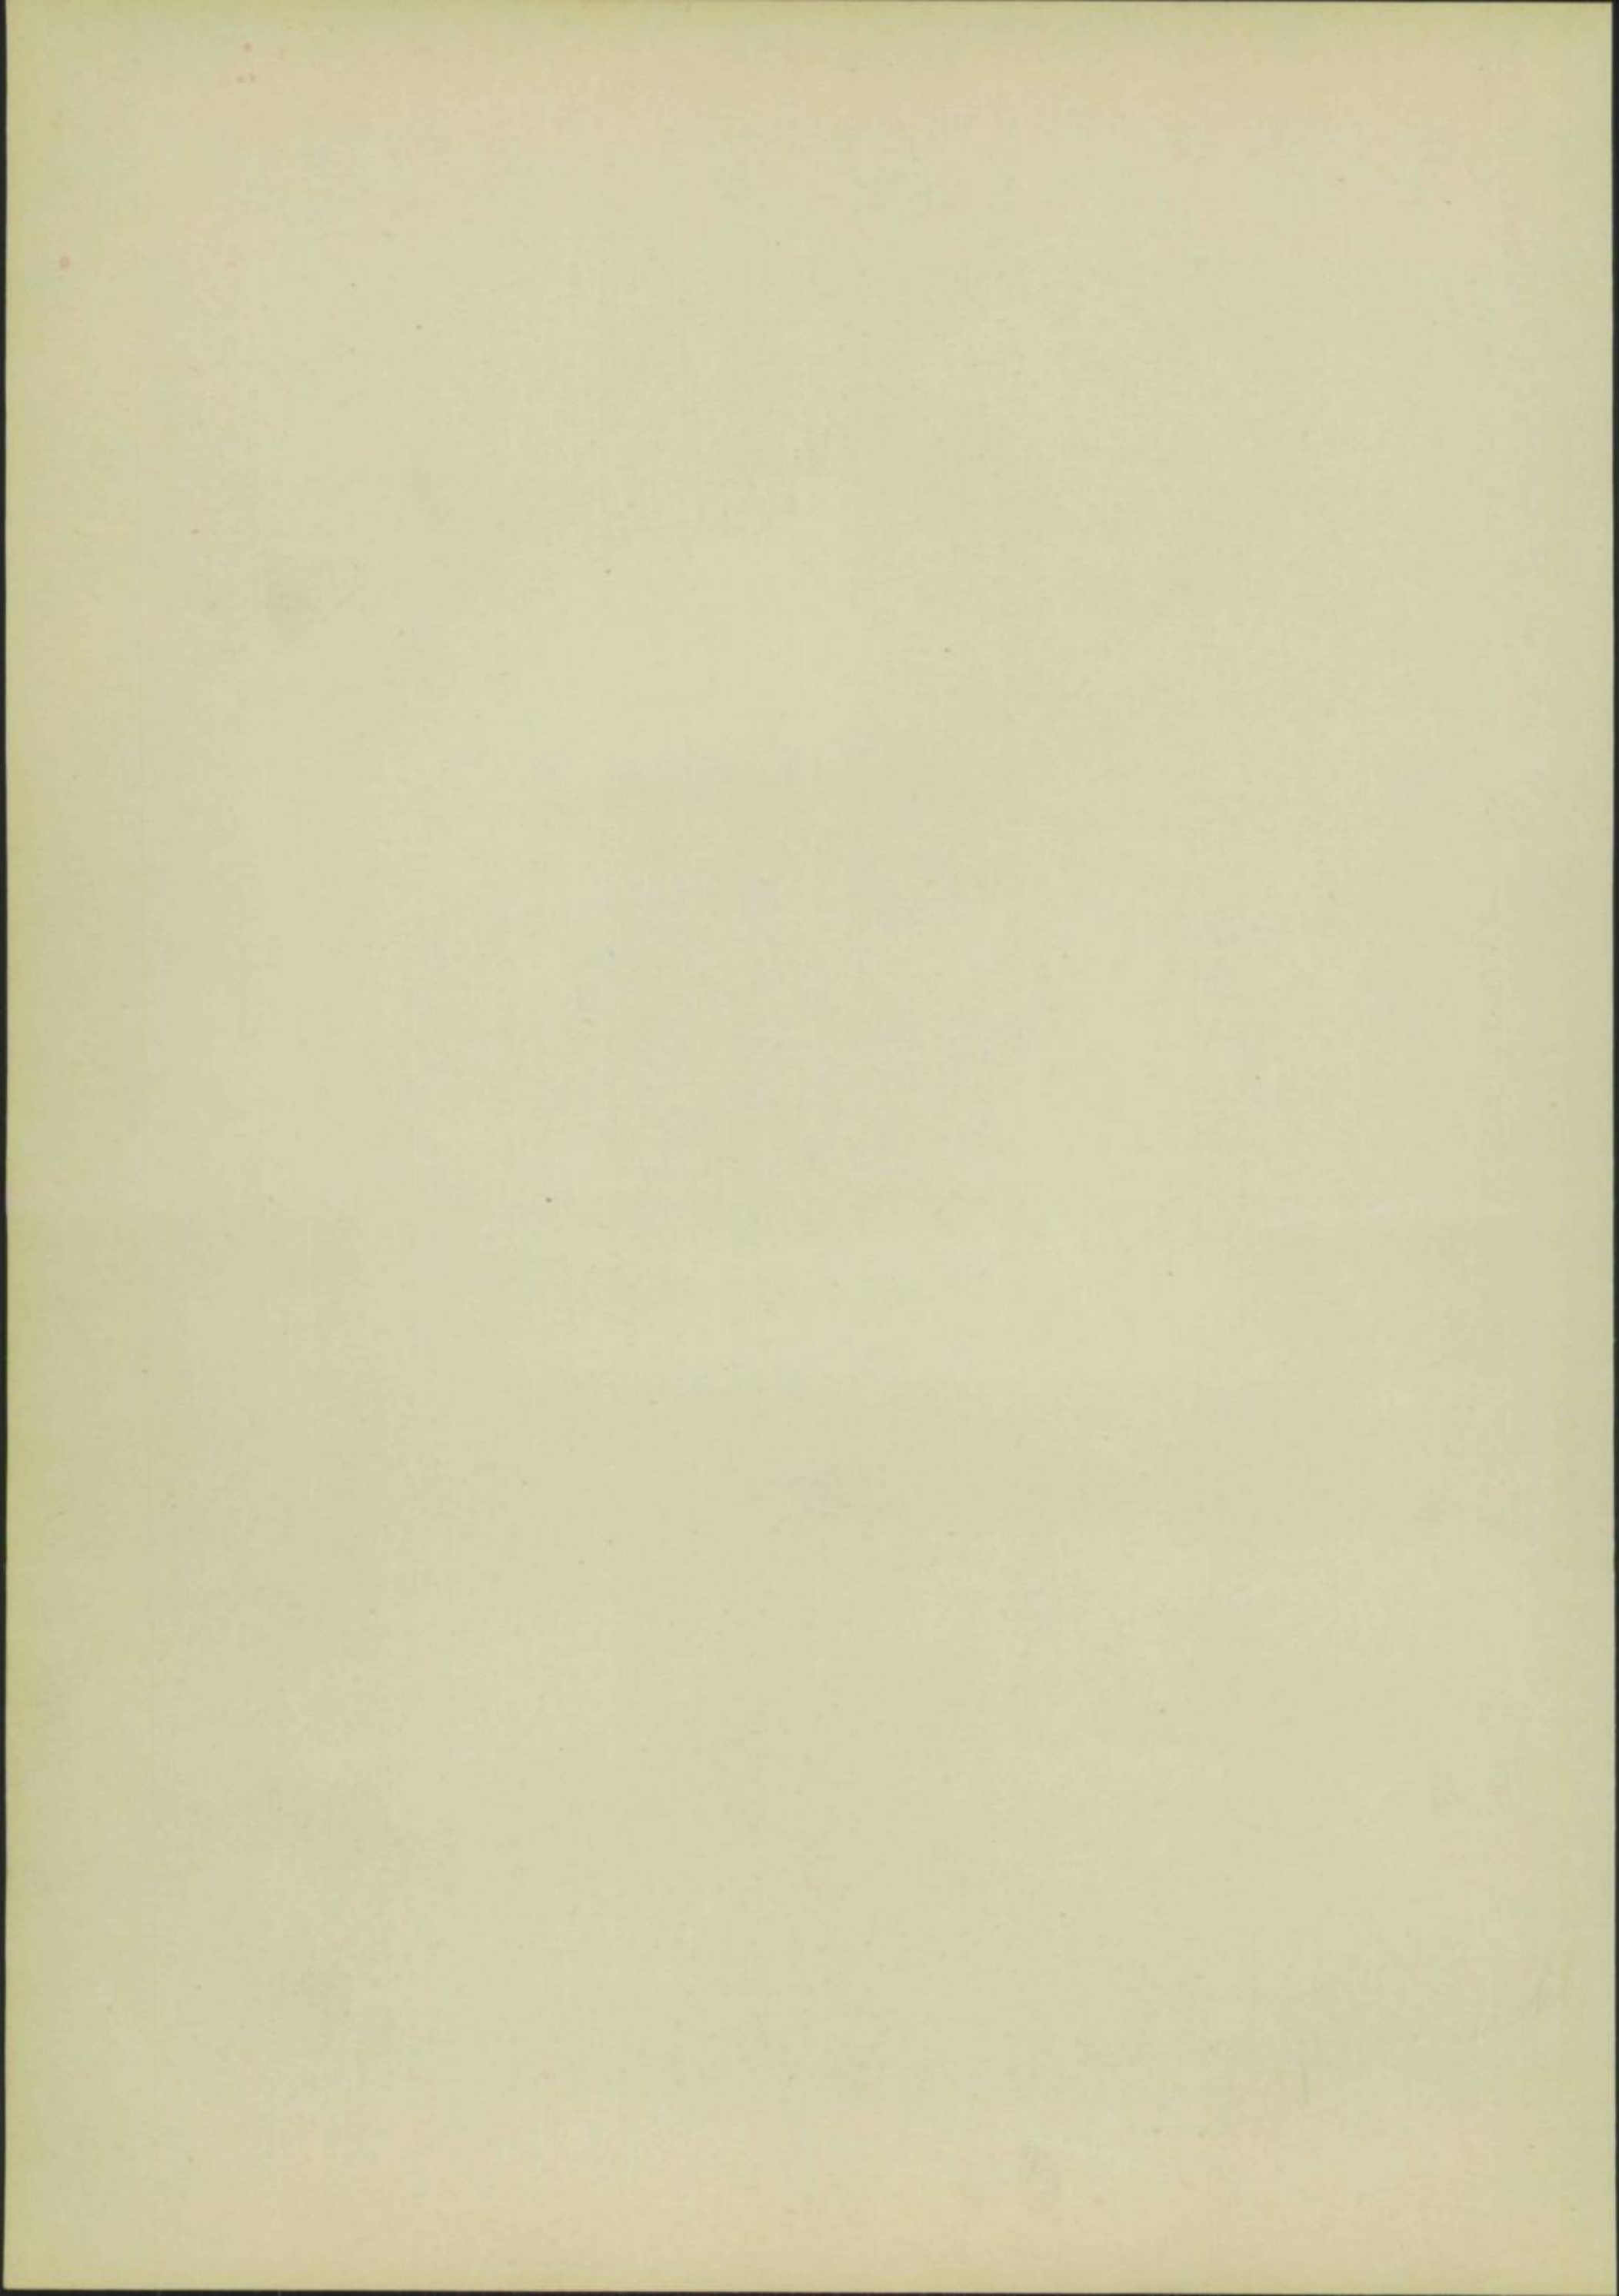

Keeping an eye on the welfare of all B. H. S. students, the Parent-Teachers Association operates on a non-profit basis. With Mrs. Ernest Dawe as president, the group sponsors the Senior Prom and the Globe Trotter games, the proceeds being used for student loans.

RADIO

When you hear "Testing, 1-2-3," it's probably the voice of Howard Larson who, with his assistant, Warren Wehmer, operates the 80-watt radio for the "mikes" in the assemblies, class class programs, and student productions.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS
Monaghan, Arnason, Holbrook

EXECUTIVE BOARD

With President Harold Arnason presiding, this group brought to the B. H. S. wigwam definite policies of student government. Our high standards of conduct are due in no small measure to the outstanding student body officers elected last spring. They appointed the What-A-Sho manager and members of the Pep Assembly committee.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Harold Arnason—His fine speaking voice and friendly personality have done much to make Hal an outstanding A. S. B. prexy.

Dorothy Monaghan—This captivating little Irish lass, whose sensitive face made her such a lovely madonna in the Christmas pageant, has charge of all assemblies.

Louise Holbrook—She's little, but don't underestimate her. Our blonde secretary, with the laughing eyes, is one of the most intensely alive persons in school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The council fires burn brightly at eleven o'clock on the days that student body officers, class officers, and roll room representatives meet. Under the leadership of Harold Arnason and Mr. Howell, the group makes important decisions, enforces new rulings, and, in general, keeps B. H. S. running smoothly. This year the Student Council was able to obtain student prices to the local theaters.

SERVICE CLUB

With Miss Tarkoff as adviser and Marion Hardin and Ruth Cederstrom presidents, the Service Club has prepared the servicemen's plaque and the gold star flag. The members sold calling cards, Senior announcements, and handled school supplies. The group was in charge of the Lost and Found department, kept flowers blooming in the offices and the library, and held a rummage sale in February.

INFORMATION GIRLS

The scouts of the school, led by Virginia Lloyd and Miss Scott, are the Information Girls. These fleet-footed maidens can be seen going through the halls performing their duty by collecting attendance slips and taking messages to students and teachers.

SECRETARIES

"Take a letter, please"—"Will you answer the phone?" So goes the job of the secretaries. Ever ready to do their work in the main office, the A. S. B. office, study hall, library, music, and Boys' P. E. departments, they are a great asset to the school. These loyal workers must have a "C" average and generally have a recommendation from the commercial department. As reward for their work they may take their choice of receiving merits or a credit.

PRAYER

Great Spirit, these are the warriors who have fallen in battle. They have given their lives on nearly every continent in the world and in every ocean; in flaming airplanes, sinking ships, and muddy foxholes. For them we ask that in the Happy Hunting Ground there are blue skies, green forests, cool lakes, and great streams to fish in, even as there are in the Puget Sound country they loved so well. We ask this for them, Great Spirit, for they have truly earned it.

BOYS IN SERVICE

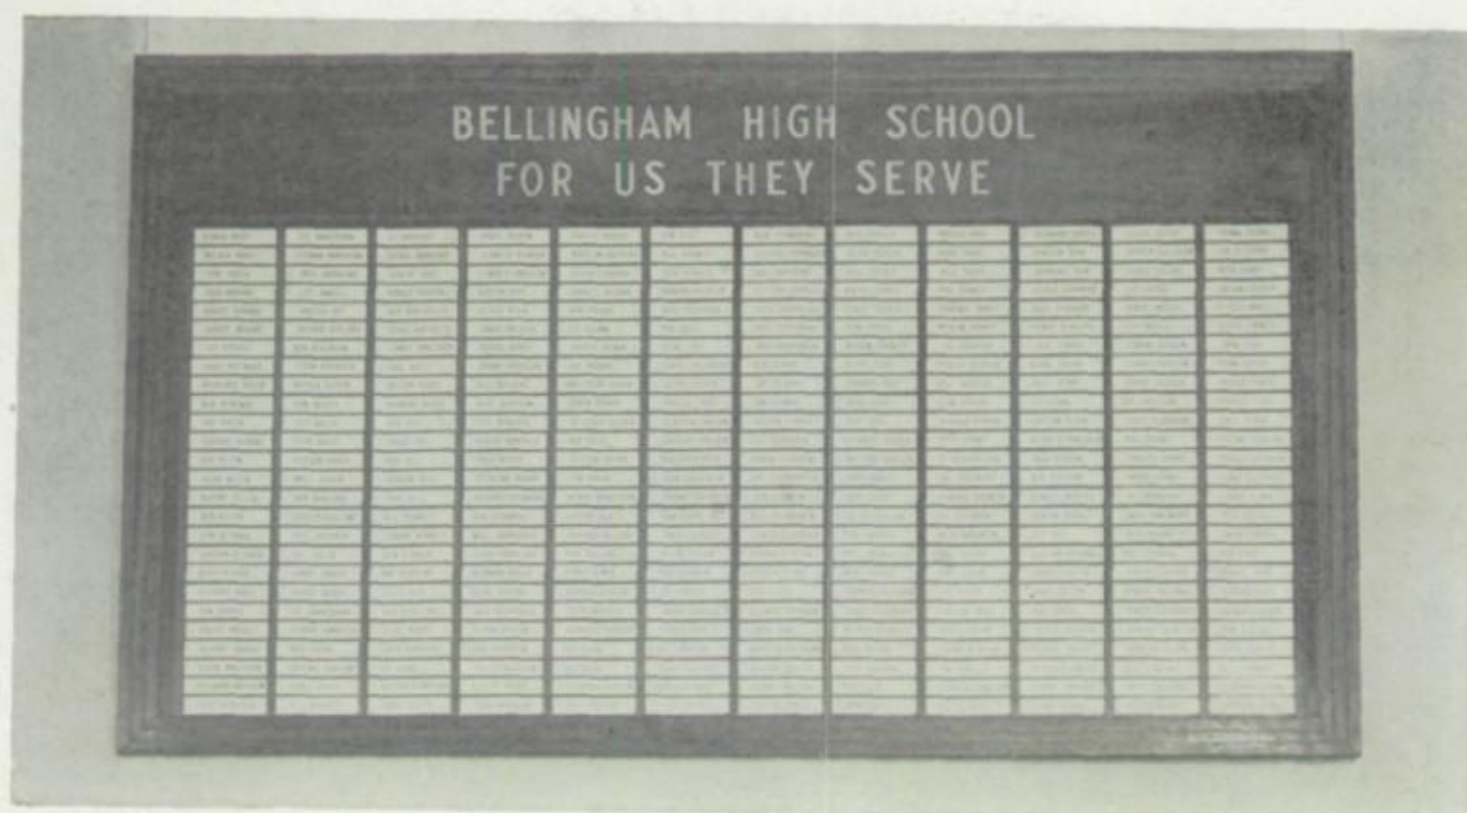

Many of these boys would have been on the stage Commencement night to receive diplomas; instead, they are fighting in the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Corps. and Coast Guard. To them, we wish the best of luck and a safe and speedy return.

SENIOR

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS
Miss Kaufman, Carr, Miss Kelly
Reynolds, Moen

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Clayton Carr, President—He's red-haired, quiet, energetic, and sporting, a boy's boy who has a way with girls.

Marilyn Moen, Vice-President—She's small and dark-haired, one of the few girls who can really wear a red plaid dress, and possessor of an A-1 sense of humor.

Esther Reynolds, Secretary-Treasurer—She's vivacious and blue-eyed, the swivel-hipped "other woman" of the Senior melodrama.

JACKIE M. ABBOTT—Ushers' Club; Girls' League Representative; What-A-Sho; Sophomore Program Committee. Ambition: Travel.

DOROTHY E. ALBEE—Entered from Nooksack Valley High. Ambition: Good skater.

VIVIAN BLY ALDERSON—What-A-Sho; Student Council; Service Club. Ambition: Travel.

SENIOR CLASS

The warriors of the school came through their battle victoriously. Clayton Carr and his followers left to the school a "Busher Lewis Inspirational Baseball Trophy" for outstanding players in that sport. They also leave the memories of Molly Alexander, What-A-Sho princess; "Pure As the Driven Snow", the first melodrama to be presented by a Senior class at Bellingham High; many outstanding athletes—Jack Frazier, Hal Arnason, Clayton Carr, all three-year lettermen as well as three sports men, Erling Johnson and Norm Sansregret; Marvin Still, a three-year letterman; six five "A" students, Keith Bancroft, Dolores Brown, Gloria Carey, Joanne Fisher, Donna Lea Nugent, and Martha Ward, as well as thirteen four "A" students. An outstanding Senior assembly, displaying the talent of their tribe, closed the warriors' reign over the "heap big wigwam."

GORDON WAYNE ANDREASEN—Intramural Football. Ambition: Millionaire.

ELEANOR M. ANNETT—What-A-Sho Vaudeville Committee. Ambition: Success.

EILEEN BERNICE BREUER—Ushers' Club, Secretary; Friendship Committee; Student Council; What-A-Sho. Ambition: Skiing in Norway.

DOLORES BROWN—Beacon Staff, Co-Editor; Shuksan Staff ('44), Compiling Editor; Torch Club; Make-up Corps. Ambition: Journalist.

Martha Ward

Behind her perfect dignity and quiet poise lurk a real sense of humor and a sparkling personality revealed only to her closest friends. Besides being one of our top scholars, she has served as president of the Alchemist Club and has worked diligently as merit secretary. This terrific brain also is a member of Rainbow and plays the saxophone in the Rainbow orchestra.

Jack Van de Wetering and Pat McEvoy

Good natured, good friends, and good workers are these two boys. Jack is the school photographer and belongs to the Key Club. Pat, the business manager of the Beacon, is a familiar figure buzzing around in his blue V-8 death trap. Though they do very different work for B. H. S., they are really swell pals and, when no distracting females are present, they help hold up the wall under the clock together.

Remember my hat. Have that Red Wing. Beaverst

C. BURTON DAVIS—Ambition: Aircraft mechanic.

BEVERLY JUNE DOOLITTLE—Girl Reserves Cabinet; Alchemist Club; Girls' League Social Committee; What-A-Shos. Ambition: Center on the Yale football team!

Bev Walquist and Virginia Lloyd

It's surprising what good fillicums these girls are, since Bev's in the Ushers and Virginia's in Pep. But they're the best of friends and have worked together on Information Squad all year long. Bev is co-chairman of the decorations committee at Red Wing. You may have seen her hustling down to State Street loaded with evergreens for a big party. Virginia was a copy writer for the "Shuksan" last year, and this year helps steer feminine destinies on the Girls' League Cabinet.

Don Wosinek

If you were looking for this Senior lad, you might find him in a variety of places; bending over his easel in the art room working at posters or charcoal drawings; checking out books in the library; or pounding the keys on a piano. His knowledge of typing has made him very adept in the library, and his skill in music has been a great help to the glee club where he is the accompanist fifth period.

JACQUELINE ALNORE DU PRAW—What-A-Sho; Girls' League Representative. Ambition: Secretary.

Dolores Brown and Carolyn Hook

Two versatile girls as opposite as black and white are the co-editors of our "Bellingham Beacon." Carolyn is the social one, buzzing around on the dance committee in her Junior year, belonging to umpteen other committees, and being chairman of the concessions committee of the What-A-Sho this year. Dolores, on the other hand, holds the honor standards. She's been in Torch Club for three years, and her lucid brain and consistent effort have brought her to the valedictorian's chair at Commencement. The "Beacon" this year showed the happy blending of these two interesting personalities.

Kenny Thorsen and Don Anderson

Every Wednesday, one can find Kenny and Don in the bookroom, and they are not after books. No, these two boys are the big chiefs of the stamp and bond sales. Both are in the Torch Club; Kenny was president of the Alchemist Club last semester, and Don is on the Shuksan Business Staff. So, every week, as the familiar cry rings out, "And bonds today?", these two boys can be found working for Uncle Sam.

Donna Lea Nugent

Remember her? Donna was one of the coquettish gals in the Gay Nineties act of the What-A-Sho. Everybody knows that, but everyone doesn't know that this small lively Senior made costumes for the What-A-Sho, won recognition in the art contest sponsored by the Scholastic Magazine for costume design, and is very much interested in interior decorating. This busy little miss has also been a member of the glee club and has appeared in operettas.

Bud Wilson and Chuck Fisher

Here they are — one blond, the other brunette, but both crazy about the stage crew. Bud Wilson is stage electrician and is in the Hi-Y. His favorite sports are football and baseball. Chuck Fisher, as manager of the stage crew, is Miss Gray's right-hand man, and the thought of presenting an operetta or play without him standing by is really frightening. He is also a member of the glee club.

JUNE C. ROLAND—What-A-Sho ('42, '44); "Blossom Time." Ambition: Air stewardess.

WICKIE H. ROTH—Hi-Y; Red Wing Cabinet; Color Guard; Senior Play, Lead. Ambition: Doctor.

ARTHUR J. RUNESTRAND—Hi-Y, President; Red Wing, President; Stage Crew; Yell Leader. Ambition: Happy go lucky.

BARBARA ANN SCARLETT—Ambition: Secretary.

RAYMOND PATRICK SCOTT — Basketball; Baseball; Key Club; Intramural Football. Ambition: College.

JANICE GAYLE SHETLER — Alchemist Club; Stamp and Bond Manager. Ambition: Pharmacist.

DIANE SHIELDS—Ambition: Go on expeditions for the National Geographic.

KATHLEEN F. SIVERTSEN—Girl Reserves; Student Council Representative; Beacon Staff. Ambition: Nurse.

JOHN SLATER—Hi-Y; Fire Squad; Intramural Sports. Ambition: Lawyer.

GILBERT SMITH — Intramural Football; Intramural Basketball; Golf Team; Golf Club. Ambition: Navy Air Corps.

JAMES ARTHUR SMITH—Ambition: Navy radio technician.

JOAN WINNETTE SMITH—Beacon Staff, Girls' Sports Editor; Pep Club; "B" Club, Secretary; Social Committee. Ambition: P. E. teacher.

VERNA GAIL SMITH—"Blossom Time"; What-A-Sho ('42, '43, '44). Ambition: Nurse.

ELLA MARIE SOUTHLAND—Boys' P. E. Office. Ambition: Secretary.

RALPH E. SPARMAN—Ambition: Machinist.

KATHRYN JEAN SPEARIN—Song Leader ('44, '45); "Chocolate Soldier"; "Blossom Time"; What-A-Sho. Ambition: Army Air Corps wife.

MERIBETH ANN SPEARS—Library Chairman; "Blossom Time"; Girls' League Cabinet. Ambition: See New York.

MARY JACQUELINE SPRAGUE—What-A-Sho; Senior Play; Library Staff. Ambition: To roller skate down the front hall.

EMMA JEAN STACEY—What-A-Sho. Ambition: Nurse.

DORIS STEVENS—"B" Book, Typist; Boys' P. E. Office; Stamp and Bond Manager. Ambition: Secretary.

CECIL MARVIN STILL—Shuksan Staff, Editor-in-Chief; Beacon Staff, Copy Editor; Torch Club, Secretary-Treasurer; Tennis Team. Ambition: College.

DONNA D. STILTNER — What-A-Sho; Girl Reserves. Ambition: Bookkeeper.

RALPH RUSSELL STIMSON — What-A-Sho; Intramural Basketball. Ambition: Graduation.

CHARLES H. STOCKLEY—Football; Raider Club; Pep Band. Ambition: U. S. Forest Ranger.

DOLORES HILDA STRUBE—What-A-Sho ('43). Ambition: Nurse.

ROBERT SWANK — Intramural Sports. Ambition: Navy Air Corps.

Wanda Gossage and Gloria Carey

As long as the dollars come in faster than they go out, Wanda and Gloria are happy. These two girls have much in common, and perhaps this is why they work so harmoniously together as heads of the Shuksan Business Staff. They are both in the Ushers' Club and in the Torch Club, of which Gloria is president. They are also mutually interested in music, Gloria having been a member of the orchestra and Wanda, the glee club.

Dan Crait

"I'm sorry—other stairs, please," and this good-natured fellow should know. He's captain of the Traffic Squad. His duties don't end here, though. Being sports editor of the Beacon sends him traveling near and far. The decorations committee of the prom made him gather stumps, and DeMolay demands he keep their minutes. His running around might be responsible for Dan's rosy complexion.

GLORIA ANN TAYLOR—Ambition: Interior decorator.

GEORGE A. THOMAS—Fire Squad; Track. Ambition: Draftsman.

KENNETH ROBERT THORSEN—Alchemist Club, President; Torch Club; Golf Team; Raider Club. Ambition: Research chemist.

NANCY V. TIEDJE — Pep Club; Girls' League, Vice-President; Girl Reserves; What-A-Shos ('43, '44). Ambition: Clothing designer.

ALICE ELIZABETH TRODDEN—Ambition: Telephone operator.

MARY JUNE TUSHER—Ambition: A good wife.

ADORA FAYE URBICK—"B" Club; Pep Club, Secretary-treasurer; Ad Staff; Operettas. Ambition: Own cottage at Sun Valley.

GERRY MAE VANDERPOOL—Beacon Staff, News Editor; Shuksan Staff, Copy Editor; Torch Club; Alchemist Club. Ambition: Journalism.

JOHN E. VAN de WETERING—Key Club, Secretary; Beacon Staff, Photographer. Ambition: Doctor.

DONALD VAN VOORST—Football; Baseball; Intramural Basketball. Ambition: Play baseball for the New York Yanks.

JOSEPH H. VAUGHN—Chess Club. Ambition: Evangelist.

KENNETH M. VERTREES—Alchemist Club. Ambition: Naval officer.

JERRY N. WADDELL—Ambition: Cartoonist.

VERNA K. WAHL—Ambition: Cadet Nurse.

JIM FRED WALDSCHMIDT — Swimming; Intramural Baseball. Ambition: Draftsman.

SENIOR PROM

"Wishing will make it so" — proof, a successful Senior Prom, "The Wisher's Whirl", sponsored by the P. T. A. A wishing well, stumps, flowers, and a melody on the walls formed a background for this eventful evening.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Miss Millspaugh, Mr. Montgomery
Hunt, Anable, Jorgensen

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Randy Anable, President—Dark-eyed, likeable Randy can usually be found back-stage when he is not guiding the Junior class through a successful year.

Irene Jorgensen, Vice-President—This blonde, blue-eyed vice-president of the Junior class is also an active member of Rainbow and the Pep Club.

Dallas Hunt, Secretary-Treasurer—One would never guess from her quiet voice and unassuming manner what a power dynamo this little secretary is.

JUNIOR CLASS

With Randy Anable as chief of the tribe, the Junior braves began a triumphant year by electing Barbara Quinby queen of the What-A-Sho. There were many outstanding members of the clan; musically prominent, talented tenor, Norris Brannstrom, and soprano, Phyllis Threlkeld; four A students, Ruth Cederstrom, Betty Endicott, Anita Loft, John Sutherland, Jean Taylor, Austin Warriner; and the many football, basketball, and baseball lettermen. With Mr. John R. Montgomery and Miss Neva Millspaugh as war advisers, the braves fought a successful campaign in the Battle of the Junior Year at Fort B. H. S.

The Sub Debs.

Klander, Provost, Loudon, and Kolb trim the tree.
Brown, Smith, Carlson, and Marr go in for leg art.
Thumbs up for King, Hilliard, Easterbrooks and McDonald.

SOPHOMORE

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Miss Ashcraft, Mr. Jackson
Craig, Bell, Newell

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

Ted Newell, President—This small, blond, blue-eyed boy is known for his shy manner and keen sense of humor.

Jim Craig, Vice-President—Unfortunately, this smoothie does not like girls. He can usually be found with other boys who are also sports enthusiasts.

Maxine Bell, Secretary-Treasurer—Her sparkling brunette personality has made her liked by all who know her.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Under the able leadership of Ted Newell, president, and Mr. Harlan Jackson and Miss Patricia Ashcraft, advisers, the Sophomore papooses had a very successful year. The customary scalping of the Sophs by their upper classmen merely spurred them on to greater achievement. They are proud of Mary Louise Mulhern, Sophomore What-A-Sho princess; their many promising athletes; Eloise Tweit and Roxy Klock, talented vocalists and four A students. Others who made four A's were Vivian Berquist, Mary Lou Borchard, Barbara Ireland, and Dolores Paladin.

McGinnis, Rickerson, and Nattrass enjoy the sun.

Prexy Newell plans to study.

Holman proudly displays.

French and Glenman reluctantly face the camera.

TO THE BEAT OF TOM TOMS

THE BAND

When you hear the steady beat of the drums at B. H. S., it doesn't mean war — it is simply the band playing for a game or pep assembly. This year, the Junior members of the Dance Band helped provide a sparkling assembly.

SONG AND YELL LEADERS

"We'll be cheering," and why not with this peppy sextet leading us "On to Victory." New yells, new songs, new ideas, but the same old school spirit that can't be beaten! These slim girls and supple boys, turning, twisting, kneeling, jumping, really made the bleachers echo with "Fight, Fight, Fight for Bellingham High, our old school."

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUBS

Red blouses and white skirts, white shirts and black bow-ties. These are the outfits worn by the glee clubs. The forty-five members of the orchestra are attired in dark suits and various colored formals. Joanne Fisher was the concert mistress of the orchestra this year. Both groups are directed by Mr. Williams and have presented joint programs for the city's service clubs and school assemblies. They took part in the coronation, as well as several other acts of the What-A-Sho. The highlight of orchestra and glee club activity is the operetta presented in the spring.

THE MERRY WIDOW

Who wouldn't love a gay young widow? Especially if she possessed twenty million francs. This is the position Soprano Eloise Tweit found herself in as the Merry Widow, with all of Paris laying hearts at her feet and Tenor Norris Brannstrom courting her, at first for patriotism, then for love. This operetta was highlighted by elaborate costumes, beautiful music, and brilliant ballets. The comedy number, "Women", in which the male leads burlesqued women's mannerisms and dancing, completely brought down the house.

BLOSSOM TIME

With Persis Reynolds, Martin Kuljis, and Norris Brannstrom in the leading roles, this beautiful operetta, the story of Franz Schubert's life, was presented as our 1944 operetta.

WHAT-A-SHO

WHAT-A-SHO

All of the moons of the year were dedicated to the beautiful queen, Barbara Quinby, and her two Indian princesses, Molly Alexander and Mary Louise Mulhern, in this year's What-A-Sho, "Calendar Capers." Jack Frazier was chief of the show and Art Runestrand served as master of ceremonies. Nine pretty maidens announced the moons with big black and white letters.

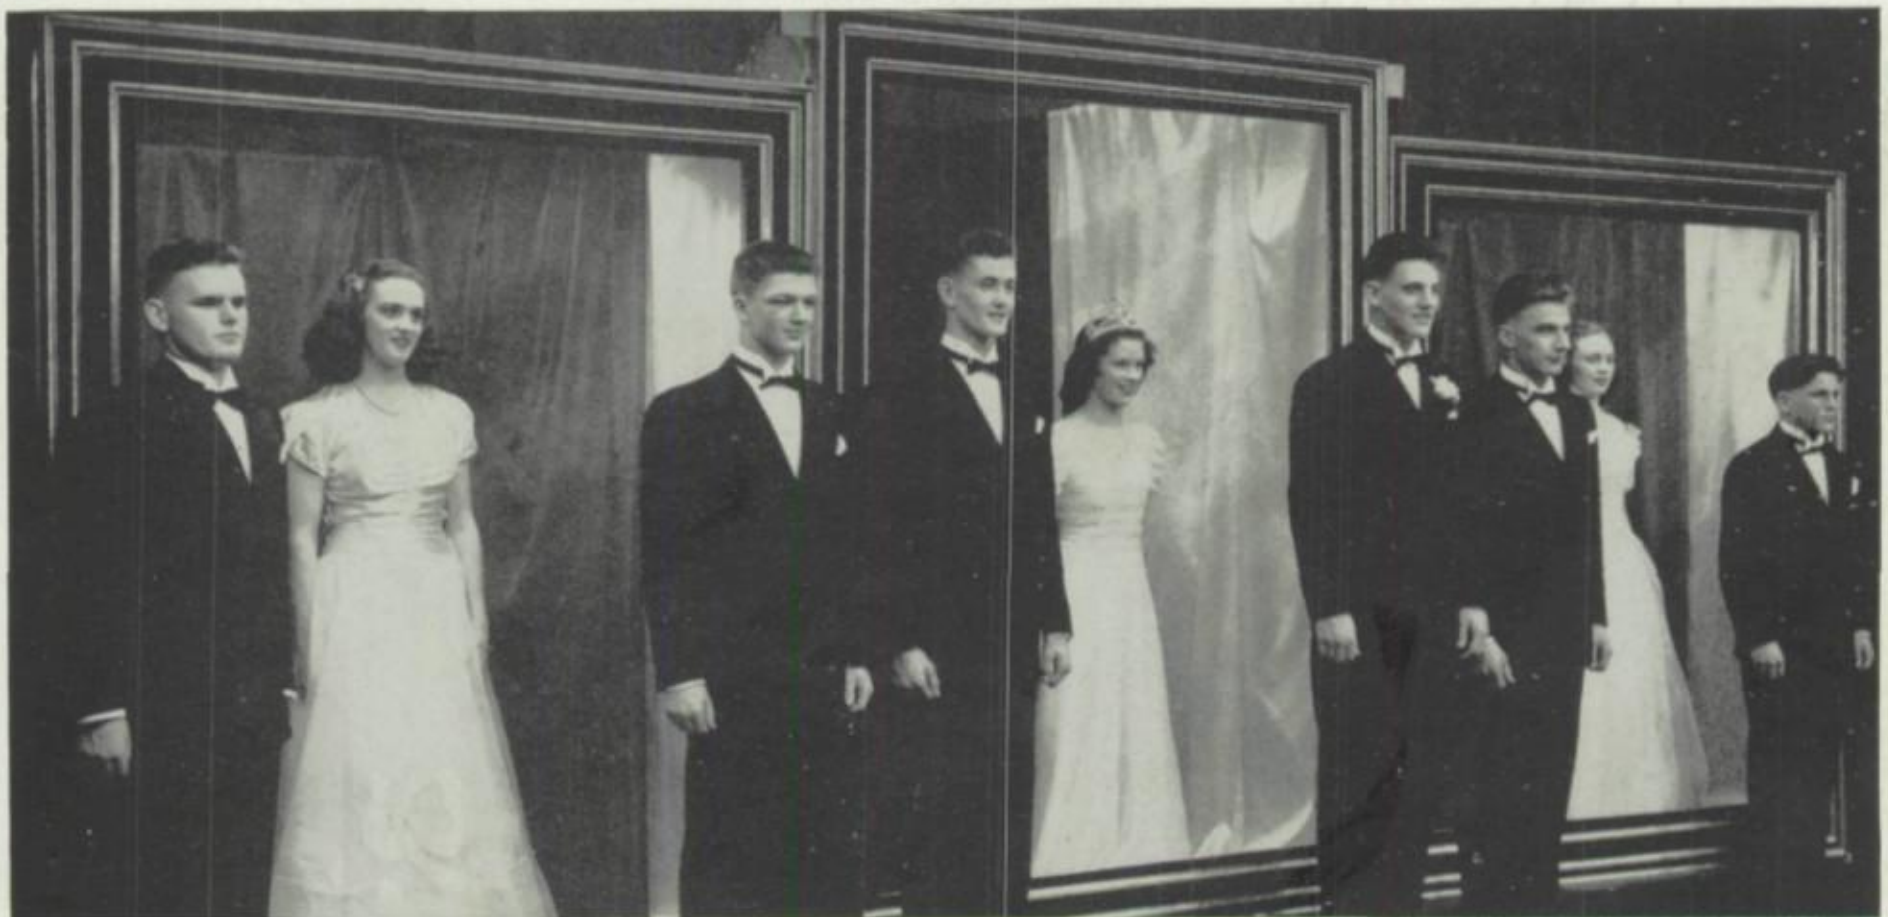

Every moon had an act to signify its main holiday or theme. Many were outstanding, but the sell-out audience especially applauded one. For December, blue lights covered the stage and snow began to fall when Norris Brannstrom took the spotlight to sing "White Christmas." The biggest pow-wow of the year came to a close on New Year's Day. Now once again our brave tribe has settled down until What-A-Sho time next year.

SENIOR PLAY

Amid hisses for the villain, applause for the heroine, and cheers for the hero, the class of '45 presented "Pure As the Driven Snow", or "A Working Girl's Secret", the first burlesque melodrama ever to be presented as a class play. The setting of this play was Uland Inn, a Vermont mountain lodge, where all the action took place. The villain, Bob Boroughs, twirled his mustache. The villainess, Beverly Whited, made dastardly plots against Louise Holbrook, the pure sweet heroine in black velvet hood, and Wickie Roth, the manly-bosomed hero, strode wrathfully to protect the working girl. This great emotional triumph, characterized by stilted poses and deliberately missed cues, was directed by Miss Gray and Viola Fisher. Novel programs, imitating the florid style of the 1870's, were distributed after school and the evening of the play.

STAGE CREW

"The world's best workers," beams Miss Gray as she glances at the energetic group of which she is the adviser. The stage crew, headed by Chuck Fisher and Clayton Gorrie, is composed of thirty-one members. All new candidates are voted on by the present group.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

The beautiful, familiar strains of "Silent Night" drifted out over the auditorium the night B. H. S. presented the annual Christmas pageant. While the orchestra played softly and the chorus sang carols, Art Runestrand, narrator, told the age-old story of Christmas, the members of the stage crew presenting it in pantomime.

PROJECTOR SQUAD

A thin beam of light streams from the little window high up in the auditorium. Yes, the Projector Squad, under Mr. Laughlin's direction, does a valuable service to our tribe by operating the educational and entertaining movies in the auditorium and in the history and science classes. The group has shown almost 125 films this year and hopes for many more next year.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The squaws of ye olde B. H. S. wigwam ended a most successful year by the traditional installation ceremony, the candlelight falling on the regulation navy blue skirts and sweaters. This club, of which every girl in school is a member, presented the Christmas party and several Girls' League assemblies, and sponsored Gingham Dress Day. The president for this year was Joanne Fisher, and the faculty adviser was Miss Dennis. Different committees in the organization give every girl a chance to serve in whatever capacity her talents permit.

TORCH CLUB

This is the group to which only the wise ones in our tepee can belong. Other members of the tribe may smile and say, "Oh, he's just a book-worm", but nevertheless they envy those who can wear the torch or two-bar pin, for this means that the student has achieved grades amounting to twenty-four points the first year and fifty points during the Junior year.

MAKE-UP CORPS

It was berry juice and herb roots when the Indians donned warpaint, but it's lipstick, rouge, and cold cream now when the Make-up Corps takes over. These workers can change ordinary High School Joe into a mustached villain and High School Jane into a Parisian cafe dancer. Miss Dillon helped train the members of the corps, to which anyone is eligible. Katherine Reid served as president, with Miss Smith as adviser.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

"Hair ribbons, short skirts, lollypops, and dolls"—"Silver, mothers, reception line, and soft music." What are we talking about? Why, the two main events of the social committee, of course — Kids' Day and the Senior Mothers' Tea. Both were huge successes this year, thanks to Miss Dennis, Beverly Whited, and her committee.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

"Proper attention in assemblies is the very least we can give and shows refinement and good manners," was one of the pointers given in a special assembly presented by the Girls' League. This as well as the talent assembly earlier in the year was planned by the Program Committee. The group is headed by Miss Jones and Nancy Tiedje.

Miss Jones is the adviser, and Viola Fisher and La Von Park served as presidents this year. The group ushers at all school functions and at many civic and professional affairs held at B. H. S. Besides their regular annual assembly, they produced an outstanding pep assembly and climaxed their social activity with a spring cruise.

PEP CLUB

These forty lively girls in white skirts and sweat shirts, brandish gay pompoms instead of bows and arrows, but they show as much enthusiasm for Raider battles as the braves did for buffalo hunts. Under the leadership of Mrs. La Velle, adviser, and Sally Place, Lenny Wardman, and Dorothy Monaghan, presidents, the club drills between halves at football and basketball games. This year they also presented an assembly, organized several pep rallies, and feted the football team.

ART CLUB

They just love to create beauty. Under Miss Nyberg as adviser and Betty Ann McLeod as president, this group of art enthusiasts meets to perfect techniques in painting, sketching, and sculpturing. The members work on any type of art they care to. This year they made clay models of African and South Sea Island native heads, displaying them in the showcases near the art room.

RED WING CABINET

Friday night used to be the loneliest night in the week. But now that Red Wing's been running smoothly, under the leadership of Art Runestrand and Miss Margaret Morse, for the past twelve moons, that's the regular place to go. Special parties were usually featured on all nights that we didn't have games. Any club in the school had a chance to make some wampum for their treasuries by taking over for a night.

Red Wing will grow better with every year. We, the cabinet, now leave its leadership to new tribe members—hoping they have as much fun as we have had.

FOOTBALL

Under the masterful leadership of Big Chief Harlan Jackson, and his assistant, Joe Koenig, the Red Raiders had another successful gridiron season. Overcome by only two rivals to the South, our warriors secured third position among the tribes of the Cross-State league. Carl Kern, Hal Arnason, Norm Sansregret, Erling Johnson, and Jack Frazier were awarded all-star positions for their outstanding play. Leaving our camp this year, perhaps to don new war dress, will be Frazier, Beal, Gorrie, Arnason, Johnson, Sansregret, Stockley, McCullough, Kern, Wilson, Ford, Cozza, Felmley, Hilliard, and Knutsen.

However, many promising Junior braves will remain to carry on the pigskin hopes of B. H. S.

BASKETBALL

The tribe's drums beat triumphantly as our Red Raiders returned from their basketball wars. Climaxing their most successful casaba season in history, the Raiders journeyed to Seattle, where they captured second place in the Washington State High School Basketball Tournament. Guided by the masterful strategy of Coach Earle Jewell, the Reds had previously tied Stadium for Cross-State honors and won the Northwest District championship. Good sportsmanship, excellent team play, and friendliness between teammates was in no small way the measure of the Raiders' success.

Clayton "The Red" Carr was field general of this year's team. Hal Arnason won the distinction of being selected on the first All-State team, while Clayton and Norm Sansregret secured second team positions. Laurence Stephan, another Senior, won his letter early in the year before joining the U. S. Marines.

Coach Jewell will have Chuck Olson as a core around which to build next year's cagers. Strengthened by this year's victories, we know the school's great sports tradition will be held high.

DIAMOND SQUAD

DIAMOND SQUAD

Light with the willow but heavy on the battery is the essence of this year's diamond squad. Although Coach Lewis has been faced with the loss of many key men, he has built up a very formidable ball club, led by his ace pitchers, Hal Arnason, Dick Plank, and Bill Wimer. This year's nine promises to follow the footsteps of their predecessors by finishing in the thick of the Cross-State league scrap. Graduating seniors are Carr, Arnason, Wimer, Frazier, Wilson, Gerard, Van Voorst, Ellingwood, Felmley, and Loreen.

Mr. Lewis

SPRING SPORTS

RACQUET WIELDERS

Captained by Marvin Still and strengthened by three returning lettermen, Coach Jewell's net squad displayed good possibilities. Inexperience in doubles cost the Raiders victories in early season matches. A Cross-State tournament is scheduled to be held at Tacoma late in the spring.

TENNIS TEAM

Grieff, Stearns, Still, Fisher, Orphan

TRACK SQUAD

Standing: Penry, Boynton, Jury, Flockoi, Page, French, Rea, Ehlers, Kaiser, Newton, Elliott, McGwin, Jewell, Lehmann, Smith, Bethke, Bowsher, Seldal, Jolley, Johnson, C. Olson, Mills, Brannstrom
Sitting: D. Olson, Grieff, Thomas, Hulford, Leonard, Griffith, Dawe, Runestrand, Stearns, Blankenship

THINCLADS

These are the fleet-of-foot braves who take to the cinder paths rather than the treacherous woodland trails. Competing in several meets, these tracksters, under the direction of Harlan Jackson, have shown excellent sportsmanship. In early season events, Chuck Olson, Norm Sansregret, and George Kaiser amassed several points for the Raiders.

LINKSMEN

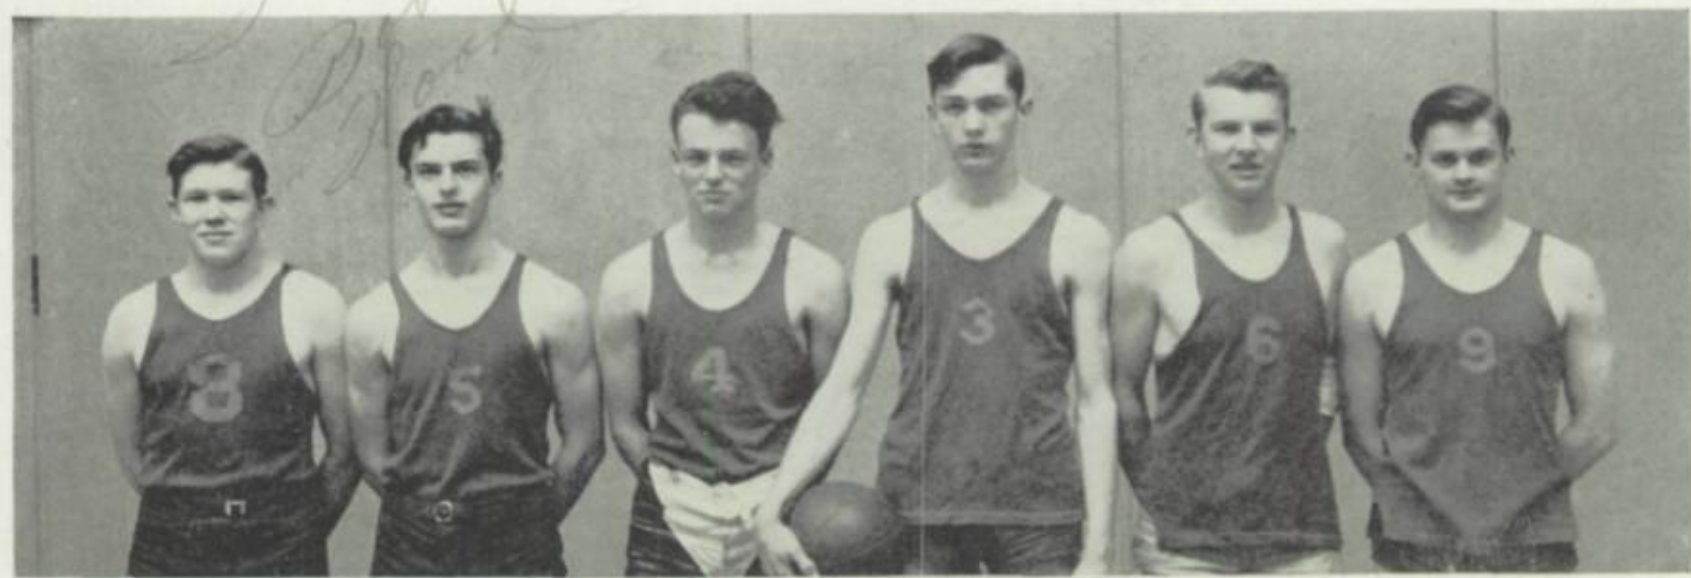

"He shot a birdie and an eagle yesterday." No, this Raider wasn't hunting; he was shooting a game of golf. This year's golf team, with Joe Koenig as new coach, scheduled many matches, the highlight of which was a four-way meet with Stadium, Lincoln, and Everett.

GOLF TEAM

Carr, Clark, Keyes, Holmes, Pederson, Thorsen, Mr. Koenig

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Victory through teamwork — is the valuable lesson learned by every intramural basketball championship team. This year's Hot Shots are no exception. They worked faithfully to develop the fighting spirit and playing skill that brought them out on top. Their victory was well earned, and they deserve our praise.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS
Berry, Wood, Page, Swank, Roth, Morberg
Sparman, Hindman

INTRAMURAL BASEBALL

The well-known early bird has nothing on the intramural softball athletes whose competitions must always be played off before the other toils of the school day begin. That energy, in itself, speaks well for their enthusiastic interest in the sport.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

We'll work to win . . . The close of the 1944 intramural football season found the Vikings in first place, topping a league of nine teams. This is proof of real athletic ability and sportsmanship; for these teams turned out in every kind of weather to work long and hard. Every game was a tough battle, so the Viks truly earned this—salute to the winners!

GIRLS' SPORTS

Here we go! Enthusiasm and competition are keen this year among the girls as their teams battle for honors in the major sports of speedball and volley ball during the fall; basketball and baseball in the spring.

The minor sports of ping pong, badminton, archery, horseshoes, and tennis require speed and accuracy.

All through the year individual sports such as hiking, skating, swimming, bicycling, and bowling offer extra points toward earning the coveted "B" sweater or an additional stripe.

WE POUND THE DRUMS FOR:

MARY NIX—Capable "B" Club president and an outstanding athlete.

JOANNE FISHER and JOAN SMITH—School ping pong champions.

CHARLENE COLBY—The only one who received her first stripe when a Sophomore.

SENIORS—Champion speedball players.

JUNIORS—For winning volleyball honors.

SOPHOMORES—Basketball champions.

WANDA JENKINS—Winner in badminton singles; MARY NIX and GERTRUDE BAKER, winners in badminton doubles.

DIANE HORWITZ—Top tennis player of last year.

BADMINTON CHAMPIONS

Jenkins, Baker, Nix
Horwitz, Dorcy

PING PONG

FEM FROLICKS

The girls go hosteling

After many years of excellent leadership, Miss Evelyn Clark joined the WAC. Taking her place are two capable coaches, Miss Ashcraft, and Mrs. Wieder.

A special event of the year was the hosteling trip to Abbotsford, British Columbia. Twelve energetic girls rode on their bicycles the thirty-one miles!

GIRLS' SPEEDBALL

SCHOOL LIFE SCENES

1. How about a yodel, Bush? 2. Our attendance clerk when she isn't giving out blue slips. 3. H. M. Torpen, who teaches welding at Sehome School. 4. Schwenn and Stafford, our custodians. 5. John Roy peeking over the edge. 6. The Lions Club presents the football team with hard-to-get blankets. 7. Nothing but a telephone pole for Hook, Evans, and Roland to cling to. 8. Fox, Urbick, and Colby try some tackling after the pep assembly. 9. Kids again for a day. 10. The Rolands just can't resist the power of suggestion. 11. Senior redheads, Carr and Scott. 12. Nelson's trolley car, model 1906. 13. Ireland, Ryan, and Lloyd behind the bars. 14. Place and Hunt try to be great outdoor women. 15. Nazi emblem of defeated Germany is part of souvenir display arranged by Britt. 16. Even the Pep Clubbers have indolent moments. 17. Sjolander, Kirk, and Horwitz rough-house on the front lawn. 18. Whited and Dalton look longingly at Chanel No. 5 straight from Paris.

SCHOOL LIFE SCENES

1. Waiting at the door. 2. Wide range of expressions here—note Fox being solemn and Monaghan in stitches.
3. Dalton and Watkins at Tacoma game. 4. Camera-shy Steiner is finally caught by Hilliard and Jewell while Roberts and Knutsen look on. 5. Inge, Leonard and Gossage gazing into unaccustomed sunlight.
6. Peddycord in silhouette. 7. Senior girls looking up. 8. Old Glory at halfmast for Franklin Delano Roosevelt. 9. We're never too old to chute the chutes. 10. Christmas carolers. 11. Yes, we've heard about the manpower shortage. 12. New types of sweater girls. 13. Ziegler and Martin do their stuff in sales class.
14. Sjolander, Kirk, Horwitz, and Henson gather a little hay fever. 15. Smith shoots a basket. 16. We bet you were wonderful babies. 17. Evans and Thomas dream a little in the sun.

THE 1945 SHUKSAN STAFF for their interest and cooperation in producing the yearbook.

ALL FACULTY MEMBERS AND STUDENTS who have helped in any way.

In a book of this kind there are a certain number of mistakes made, no matter how hard we try to eliminate them. We have no complete data concerning the servicemen, since we rely solely upon reports given to us by students and faculty members.
